Clearbrook-Gonvick Forestry Class students waiting for instruction on the School Forest Project, Tuesday, November 27.

Students and Conservation Corps start clean up in school forest

Clearbrook-Gonvick students, under the supervision of teacher Kim Anderson and assistance of Conservation Corps volunteers, spent time on November 27th and 28th cleaning up the school forest trails. Due to recent storms in the area, many trees had fallen, blocking the trails and making them unsafe.

The Clearbrook-Gonvick school forest is located about a mile north of the school and at approximately 360 acres, is the largest school forest in the state. School forests are managed under a Minnesota Department of Natural Resources program. Their purpose is to provide outdoor classrooms where students apply lessons learned in the classroom to real life, hands-on activities.

Forestry class students Tucker Lene, Tyler Neadeau, Naomi Shamp, and Cody Vettleson take a short break from clearing the trail in the school forest.

Clearbrook-Gonvick agriculture teacher Kim Anderson discusses the school forest project with Conservation Corps crew member Melissa Brandes.

Ryan Fairbanks works on getting the chain saw working.

Tucker Lene moves a large piece of a fallen tree from the trail.

One dead in shooting in Bemidji

BEMIDJI, Minn. — Officers shot and killed a man wanted on a felony warrant Wednesday night in Bemidji following a struggle once law enforcement realized the suspect was armed during a traffic stop, authorities said.

According to Bemidji Police Chief Mike Mastin, the shooting occurred just before 11 p.m. after a traffic stop at the intersection of 30th Street Northwest and Ridgeway Avenue.

During the stop, the officer confirmed a back seat passenger was wanted on a felony warrant. A Beltrami County sheriff's deputy arrived soon after. When the suspect was asked to exit the vehicle, both the officer and deputy saw that the person had a handgun, Mastin said. The officer and the suspect then struggled over the handgun, and the officer and deputy both fired their guns, striking the suspect.

Emergency personnel were called and the suspect was pronounced dead at the scene. The Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension arrived on scene and will conduct the investigation into the shooting, Mastin said.

The Bemidji police officer was wearing a body camera, he said. Identified in the shooting was Vernon May, 34, of Red Lake and the officer involved in the shooting death was Bidal Duran, who has been with the Bemidji Police department for six years and Beltrami County deputy as Brandon Newhouse who has been with the sheriff's office for two years.

Convocation of Parish Leaders:

Evangelizing Missionary Disciples hosted by Crookston and Fargo Dioceses brings 750 Catholics to Fargo

FARGO, NORTH DAKOTA, November 30, 2018 — The Catholic Dioceses of Crookston and Fargo have come together to host 750 delegates from Northwest Minnesota and Eastern North Dakota for the Convocation of Parish Leaders: Evangelizing Missionary Disciples on November 30 and December 1, 2018 at Avalon Events Center in Fargo.

In July of 2017, the United States bishops, along with Catholic leaders from around the country, gathered in a historic meeting called The Convocation of Catholic Leaders: The Joy of the Gospel in America, attended by representatives from both the Crookston and Fargo Dioceses. Speakers delved into the nation's social and religious "landscape". Breakout sessions highlighted the peripheries and how to identify and reach them. Each delegation had the opportunity to discuss and ask the question, "What could missionary discipleship look like within our parishes and diocese?"

The Convocation of Parish Leaders in Fargo explores that question. Bishop Michael J. Hoepfner of Crookston and Bishop John T. Folda of Fargo invited pastors and their delegates to examine the Church's teachings on evangelization, missionary discipleship, and how to be a mission-oriented parish that seeks the lost and strives to be Jesus' mercy and love in a world marred by wounds.

The Convocation touches on several subjects, including current trends and statistics, what is providing hope in the Church today, and the challenges that the Church is facing.

"We want to look at who is being served in our parishes and who maybe aren't being served as they should be, as Pope Francis says, reaching out to the peripheries," said Ashley Grunhoyd, an event organizer. "For example, we are having breakout sessions to examine how we work with young adults who are not practicing their faith anymore or have left the Church, how we should evangelize to family or friends who have left the Church, and what it looks like to evangelize in a rural parish versus in larger cities."

Hendrickson had a felony warrant for violations related to his release from prison. Veselka had a warrant for probation violations.

My Younger Days

Norris Syverson, a man with many memories, came to us at Richards Publishing and asked if we could make a book for him. He wrote the stories, and Carolyn (Finseth) Nelson typed what he wrote. It has been quite a journey through life for Norris and being the man that he is, he wants to share with folks his memories of days gone by. Over 200 pages! Over 100 pictures! Over 500 different topics! Some include: Drought Years; Sheep Shearing; Old Fashioned Haying; Our Buggy Rides.

Here is just an excerpt from his first page...

I was born in the front room of the house I now live in on December 24, 1933. This part of the house is log. It was covered with some kind of pressed green paper about 1/8th of an inch thick, now it is covered with ½ inch thick celotex.

This house had only two rooms downstairs, each one about 12 feet by 14 feet, with low ceilings about 7 ½ feet high....There were 5 boys and 5 girls aging from 1 year to 16 years old, plus Ma and Pa living in this small house at that time....

"I hope every reader will seek the Lord and make sure you have the Lord Jesus deep in your heart for this is the Will of God."

Thank you. Norris Syverson

If you would like to receive a book, please contact Norris Syverson via the phone book.

Watching TV!!

By Auctioneer Eric W. Mickelson

I spend many evenings in front of the television set. Many nights when chores are done and supper is eaten we sit down and turn on the TV. A few weeks ago we talked about the show Green Acres and Eddy Albert driving in on GP John Deere. Nothing grabs my attention more than a show that includes an old tractor!

As the Christmas season approaches many shows will be coming on that we watch as part of the yearly celebration. One I haven't seen on TV for a long time is called "A Christmas to Remember." Two of the stars are Jason Robards and Eva Marie Saint. The story begins as the school band is playing and an announcer is bragging up what is inside this big tent. They are unveiling the John Deere 8640! A farmer jumps up in the cab to go for a ride and then it goes back to a flashback when he was young during the depression, growing up on the farm with his Grandfather (Jason Robards) and Grandmother (Eva Marie Saint). When he was young he got sent to live with grandma and grandpa, in Minnesota, because his mom and dad in Chicago didn't have enough money to raise him. They don't get off to a great start and in one scene the grandpa chases the boy around the yard with a steel wheeled GP John Deere. Now maybe you see how come I like this show. I will stop with the storyline there, just in case you haven't seen it and you want to watch a great show, "A Christmas to Remember!"

Theology in the Trenches

By Kathleen Kjolhaug

Community in a Shoe Box

It sounds like a sales pitch, doesn't it? Community in a shoebox! With a shoebox you, too, can build community. Or, Come one, come all...it's as easy as lifting the lid on a shoebox.

I love shoe boxes, and I love the word community. Put the two together and you have something special. As of late, I've noticed both. The red and green shoeboxes canvassing church parking lots or carried in little arms bring light to the season and if I do say so myself, are becoming part of the very fabric of our communities.

Gathering goods in order to ship shoeboxes filled with treasures to little children round the world brings a smile. Little hands collect and stuff those boxes full to overflowing for others within our global community, and the excitement of this endeavor can be felt in big and small towns alike.

Displays are set up while posters help paint a visual for little eyes. Many carry the boxes home in order to gather goods so others may have something special to help celebrate the birth of Christ.

Little hearts ask how the shoe box is going to fly in the air and arrive at a place across the ocean. They are amazed when the big truck at the drop off point is filled with more boxes than little ones can count. Their hearts beat faster as their eyes light up and the magic of it all is what the season of Christmas is truly about. It's about giving. It helps embed within the next generation...that which we so desperately want them to learn. We want to help them put faith in action by loving their neighbor as themselves and this is one small step towards that as they make their way in life.

Capable are the organizers who take on these projects. Hand to hand love is spread as faith in action demonstrates an overflow of the Holy Spirit. Church to church, school to school...community is built on common ground...red and green shoeboxes stacked high.

Under the arm and in tow are not just the children but the boxes this time of year as moms and dads leave the premises from where the boxes are handed out. Never mind there is the weight of a diaper bag upon one shoulder. Never mind that the hand extending from it is connected to a child or two or three...the shoebox does not drop. It is sacred.

With excitement the children have a bounce in their step. And, it's beginning to look a lot like Christmas. From parking lots to church entry ways...to filling trucks which make their way across the country...to centers where teens as well as the elderly volunteer to help fill...it's just one shoebox at a time.

This is community on a global scale. I, for one, am blessed to see it unfold. What a gift. What an honor to be a part of it in any form.

Thank you to those who have been called to minister accordingly. Thank you! Amen.

Ask a Trooper

by Sgt. Jesse Grabow Minnesota State Patrol

Question: My friend went in the ditch last weekend and was given a citation for Failure to Drive with Due Care. It seems to me that is wasn't his fault because the wind was blowing snow across the road making the roads slippery. Why was he issued a citation?

Answer: Speeding or traveling too fast for conditions is one of the top contributing factors in fatal and seriously injury crashes our roadways. In most cases, these tragic crashes are preventable if drivers would just slow down. Losing control of a vehicle is evidence that the driver committed a violation of a traffic or equipment law. When a vehicle loses control and leaves the roadway, a Failure to Drive with Due Care is the most common violation cited.

Many of the fatal and serious injury crashes that I have investigated are one-vehicle rollovers, or a two-vehicle crash where one of the vehicles was traveling too fast for conditions, lost control and struck another vehicle.

We all have an obligation to drive with due care and adjust our driving skills to the weather, road and traffic conditions. This is especially true in the winter when weather and road conditions can frequently change.

Other excuses for a vehicle losing control on slippery road surfaces are typically:

- Using cruise control on poor road conditions
- Following too close
- Distracted or fatigued driving

- Unsafe tires
  - Driving while impaired
- You can avoid a ticket — and a crash — if you simply buckle up, drive at safe speeds, pay attention and always drive sober. Help us drive Minnesota Toward Zero Deaths.

being honorably discharged. He worked most of his life as a painter in the twin cities area. In 2005, after the passing of his beloved mother Pat made the decision to move up North to Clearbrook to join Wenesdai and raise their 3 children together.
