Silvopasture and Windbreak Field Day at Trinity Creek Ranch

Red Lake Falls, Minn. - The Sustainable Farming Association (SFA) will host a field day on Tuesday, September 6 from 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. at Trinity Creek Ranch in Red Lake Falls, Minnesota.

"This field day presents unique opportunities to explore various approaches to silvopasture establishment, grazing management, and oak savanna and woodland treatment," says Tyler Carlson, SFA's Silvopasture & Agroforestry Project Lead.

Ben and Mikayla Tabert graze beef cattle and raise row crops at Trinity Creek Ranch, utilizing no-till, cover crops, and rotational grazing practices. They will lead a tour of their operation including aspen silvopasture, oak savanna silvopasture, and newly planted windbreaks. Funding, technical assistance programs, and the general economics of silvopasture will also be part of the discussion.

This event is free to attend and lunch is provided. Registration is required, no walk-ups. Register at www.sfa-mn.org/silvopasture-agroforestry.

Location: Trinity Creek Ranch. 15885 200th Street SE,

Red Lake Falls, MN 56750

Register and find additional video, podcast, and written resources at www.sfa-mn.org/silvopasture-agroforestry.

This event is supported and funded by a grant from the Legislative Citizen Commission on Minnesota Resources (LCCMR).

Mission: The Sustainable Farming Association advances environmental stewardship, economic resilience and strong, diverse communities through farmer-to-farmer networking, education, demonstration and research.

Families working together

Shops in Mentor and Gonvick have two families working together to get their products to market. MOSKOX founded by father son Ron and Adam Bergman in Mentor bringing their snow and ice attachment to Gonvick. The next step was to have powder coating applied for the finished coat. Paul and Robin Ruckreigle and their son Jacob are the owners of Clearwater Coating in Gonvick. They have been in business since May 16, 2012 with their metal and electrostatic Powder Coating.

MUSKOX launched in 2020 and gained instant success with operators in the snow and ice management industry.

Ron Bergman has patents in the farming industry, snowmobile industry and now the snow removal industry. He was born on a dairy farm in McIntosh, to parents George and Elaine Bergman. Ron farmed before joining Arctic Cat in 1989. During his career at Arctic Cat, he managed engineer teams that introduced several industry changing snowmobiles. Upon his retirement from Arctic Cat in 2018, Ron began working on a new idea, which became the patent pending 21-78 and led to the start of MUSKOX.

Other members of the MUSKOX team include: Adam Bergman, Co-Founder/CEO; Noah Bergman, Production Lead; Mike Anderson, Sales & Shipping and Cassidy Will, Marketing & Operations.

MUSKOX brought in a load to be powder coated.

Jacob Ruckreigle loading the finished project onto the trailer with Ron Bergman watching. After unloading the ones to be powder coated they filled up the trailer with the ones in the Gonvick shop. It was a beautiful day for the transfer.

Ron and his wife Melissa Bergman with the finished product ready to head back to Mentor. The company also has an office in Grand Forks.

Bridge of Hope located near the Veterans Memorial in Clearbrook.

Bridge of Hope made in Clearbrook

Laura Grant decorated the memorial garden across from the Veterans Memorial in Clearbrook. She had a bridge built. She is dedicating this in surrounding communities as well as her hometown. The purpose of the bridge that she had built is for country and state. It is to recognize those who suffer with PTSD and suicidal ideation that work for state and country. She wanted people to know that there are so many that respect admire and love them. She went on to say, "I know for me I will always be there for them in any way I can. As I am sure that there are many others out there who would be as well. I will have brochures out there for anybody who suffers with this and ribbons for them to tie onto the bridge in memory of anyone who's taken their life or in honor of those who serve in these jobs. I'm very passionate about this and feel very blessed to be able to do something like this. Below you will find exactly what they mean to me..."

Bridge of Hope:

"Thank you to all who have answered a call... Whether that be for country or state. I am amazed by all of your sacrifices made without a thought to delay no matter how simple or hard the task may be. I wish to describe what each letter means to me when I say that I am amazed..."

You can reach me at this email or 218-407-7681 which is my business phone for Brookfield apartments or 843-749-0301 which is my cell phone.

A is for your ability to conquer and overcome the calls of duty in all situations.

M is for your motivated knowledge and compassion to help those in need either here or where you are deployed.

A is because I admire your ability to get up day after day to put on your uniform of duty no matter how good or bad your yesterday was.

Z is for your ability to be zotic in every situation.

E is for your empathetic and ethical ways...your empathy helps to ease and your ethical way assures us that all will be made safe and right no matter what it is costing you mentally, emotionally, and physically.

D is best described as I am so deeply honored and grateful for your deliberate dedication to continue to serve, protect, and help all in need even if it is something that you know will weigh on your hearts and minds. You have a daring courage even in the face of adversity.

So, as I dedicate this bridge in honor of all of you I truly wish for you to know that you are loved, needed and important. Even though times can be dark, your light will always be a guide and I will always stand with you, beside you, and for you."

Sincerely,
Laura Grant

We are twenty-five. Twenty-five weeks old. Did you see that? See what? There it is again! We can see shadows and sometimes color now. There! Right there. If I can just... Eeek! That's my head! Well, that's a relief. Will you keep your fingers to yourself? Stop pulling my hair. Ah, sorry. Wait, here's my head. What color is my hair? I don't know. You said we could distinguish color. You'll have to wait two weeks until we open our eyes. Wait, wait, wait... well how big are we while we're waiting? We're as long as cucumbers. -a.m.opdahl www.speaklife139.com

Theology in the Trenches

Prayerful Encapsulations

The four teens lingered in the back pew as parents one row ahead looked not on. Each of the four swagged to the tune sung as hand held hymnals anchored. Heads bowed—prayerfully encapsulating words mouthed as they joined in without a trace of noncompliance among em. “Look, they’re singing,” the one beside me whispered. A novelty from our vantage point it was—only because we don’t usually sit in the very last pew along the back wall of the sanctuary which is even further back than the back pew on either side of the aisles. For some reason, today, we parked there and truth-be-told, we rather liked it. “A person sure notices a lot sitting back here, don’t they?” he commented not so quietly. I smiled within as he expressed his thoughts aloud. Norwegians don’t usually express too much—at least not mine. Perhaps it was the Swedish side of him coming out all sweet like. Directly across from the teens, on the other side of the aisle, a young family nestled. The youngest hung around mama’s neck dangling like a fine piece of jewelry as they leaned into one another. Blessed assurance it was. Another little one sat between two adults, feet not yet touching floor below pew. Papa leaned over to share songbook—souls bonding as he pointed to each word sung. Eyes glued, she followed. He pointed the way. She followed. One day she’ll step out on her own to follow Him and until then, she’s practicing while He holds fast. A few rows up sat another connected crew for such a time as this. A mama’s lap is never big enough—yet there’s always room—always room for one more. It’s a Sunday morning offering of sorts and so it goes. So it goes row after row as the communion of saints gather. We gather because we can. We gather because we hear His Word proclaimed. We gather side-by-side because while Christ walked the earth, He gathered people and they listened to His Word spoken. He says in Matthew 18:20 “For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.” He says in Hebrews10:25, “Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some; but exhorting one another and so much more, as ye see the day approaching.” He says in Acts 2:42, “And they continued steadfastly in the apostles’ doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.” As the community of saints gather each Sunday, may you find rest in knowing there is a place for you among them. If you do not have a community in which to worship, I invite you to seek until you find. I invite you to knock until the door opens. “...For those who seek, will find. Those who knock, the door will be opened unto you” (Matthew 7:7). Amen.

Ask a Trooper

by Sgt. Jesse Grabow Minnesota State Patrol

Question: A friend recently told me that it’s illegal to honk your car horn in Minnesota (he showed me an internet article). I find this hard to believe. So many friends and family members drive by our house, giving their horn a little honk and waving; is this illegal? What if you’re behind someone at a stoplight who hasn’t noticed the light turned green—is it illegal to tap your horn to alert them? And what about those car alarms that start honking if they sense an intruder? Please explain. Thank you. Answer: Minnesota state law says, “Every motor vehicle when operated upon a highway must be equipped with a horn in good working order and capable of emitting sound audible under normal conditions from a distance of not less than 200 feet. However, the horn or other warning device must not emit an unreasonably loud or harsh sound or a whistle. The driver of a motor vehicle shall, when reasonably necessary to insure safe operation, give audible warning with the horn, but shall not otherwise use the horn when upon a highway.” As stated, a motor vehicle’s horn is to be used when to “insure safe operation.” I believe it is worded as this to help prevent and reduce the unnecessary honking to help avoid annoyance and harassment. By using the horn for potential safety issues it can help keep people alert and safe. As you mentioned being behind someone at a stoplight and they don’t notice the light turning green. Does sounding the horn help with safety? Another thing to be aware of from my experience, I’ve seen a number of “road rage” incidents start from the honking of horn. Car alarms are legal. A person may want to check with their local laws and ordinances to see if there are any additional requirements and responsibili-

Rolag and Rumleys

By Auctioneer Eric W. Mickelson

The WMSTR in Rolag happens every Labor Day weekend. I have not missed it many times in the past 35 years. This year's theme was the Rumley. As I walked up to “Machinery Hill” i had no idea how many Rumley Oil Pull tractors I would be lined up! WOW! The Rumley Oil Pull line was built from 1910-1930. You have probably read or heard a story of Kerosene Annie. Kerosene Annie is the only known of the experimental Rumley tractors known in existence and “she” made her way to Rolag. I caught a glimpse of “her” on the pony brake. Meinrad Rumley immigrated to the United States in 1848 from Germany. He came here to join his brother John. He joined his brother in Laporte, Indiana, where he was running a foundry. They made threshers and other equipment and by 1887 Meinrad bought out his brothers share of the company. The company expanded to making steam traction engines. Meinrad died in 1904 but the company continued under the direction of his sons. In 1909 the company made the infamous Rumley Oil Pull. It was released for sale in 1910. The kerosene powered and oil cooled traction engine was Rumley’s most famous product. The M. Rumley Company began to expand. The Advance Threshing Machine Company and the Gaar Scott Company were two of these purchases. In 1912, Rumly expanded further with the purchase of North-west Thresher Company (from Stillwater, Minnesota) and the American-Abell Engine and Thresher Company (from Toronto, Ontario.) In 1915 these companies were reorganized into the Advance Rumley Company. In 1923 the company once again expanded with the acquisition of the Aultman-Taylor Company of Mansfield, Ohio. The Great Depression starting in 1929 caused a lot of stress on the Rumley Corporation along with many agricultural companies in the US. The company was looking for a buyer and in 1931 The Allis Chalmers Manufacturing Company took over. The Oil Pull tractor started on gas and ran on kerosene(Hence the Nickname Kerosene Annie!). The oil cooling system, kept the engine at a steady temperature no matter how heavy the tractor's load. A running Oil Pull tractor is way out of my price range but over the years reading about them and seeing a few at shows.....what a fun looking machine!

How about a little tractor trivia?

1. The Rumley model B was also called the 25/45. What did the numbers stand for?

4. Where was the Advance Threshing Machine Company headquarters before joining the Rumley Company?

5. In what year did the Western Minnesota Steam Threshers Reunion officially meet and invite the public to the show?
A) 1940 B) 1950 C) 1954 D) 1959

OBITUARIES

Obituary for Harriet Rolf

Harriet Rolf, age 100, of McIntosh, MN, passed away on Tuesday, August 30, 2002 at Pioneer Memorial Care Center in Erskine. Funeral services will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, September 10th, at Trinity Free Lutheran Church, rural McIntosh, with the Rev. David Jore officiating. Interment will be in the church cemetery. Visitation will be held from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. with a 7:00 p.m. prayer service on Friday, September 9th, at the McIntosh Community Center. There will also be reviewal for one hour prior to the service on Saturday (10th) at the church. Arrangements are with Carlin Family Funeral Service of McIntosh and messages of condolence may be shared at www.carlinfuneral.com.

Harriet Irene (Nelson) Rolf was born at home in Arena Township, Lac Qui Parle County MN on November 30, 1921, to Henry G., Nelson and Inga Annette (Sorby) Nelson. Harriet was baptized at home from Loken Church on December 29, 1921. Harriet started attending school at District 91 near Haydenville in 1927 and soon broke her arm. Because she was still 5 years old, her parents decided to keep her home and she restarted school in 1928. Harriet was confirmed May 17, 1936, at First Lutheran Church in Madison, MN and graduated from High School in Madison in 1940. Her father quit farming because of health concerns and the family moved off the farm and into Madison when Harriet was a Sophomore. After graduating High School, Harriet attended Normal Teacher Training in Madison and graduated in 1941. During the next two years, Harriet taught country School in districts #83 and #7 in Lac Qui Parle County. In the fall of 1943, Harriet and her sister Marian moved to Minneapolis. Harriet got a job in the office at Lutheran Deaconess Hospital and enrolled at Lutheran Bible Institute. Harriet kept this job until she graduated from LBI in 1945.

While at LBI, Harriet met Kenneth Rolf from McIntosh and in the summer of 1945 she moved to McIntosh and got a job at Dale's Café in order to check out the area. She rented a room at the Clara Vaatveit home. In the fall of 1945, she was hired by two Lutheran Churches as a Parochial School Teacher in Henrichs, MN. She taught classes five days a week at the City Hall. She resigned her job on April 1, 1946 and moved home to Madison. On April 26, 1946, she was united in marriage to Kenneth Rolf at First Lutheran Church in Madison. They made their home on a farm in Lessor Township for the next 66 years. They had six children: James, Mary, John, Naomi, Joel, and Paul. Harriet became immediately involved in Trinity Lutheran Church teaching Sunday School and VBS. She was involved in Sunday School as a teacher for over 50 years. She also served as Sunday School Superintendent some years. Harriet loved to plan Sunday School programs and teach preschool children in particular. In 1977 Harriet authored the AFLC WMF Bible Study on Philippians, a book of the Bible she had memorized, and also served as an officer on the WMF board for a number of years. Harriet was very happy to get a new house on the farm in 1962 so she could have running water and an indoor bathroom. In 1983 Harriet and Kenneth traveled to Israel on a tour and in 1993 they went to Norway for the graduation of a Grandson. While in Norway she was also very excited to meet her first cousins who lived there. In 1994 she and Kenneth built another new house on a different site on the farm. In 2013 they sold their house on the farm and moved to Greenleaf Assisted Living in Thief River Falls. In November of 2014 they moved to the Country Place in Erskine. While there, Kenneth died on March 31, 2016. In November of 2017 Harriet moved to Pioneer Memorial Care Center following a fall.

Central to Harriet's life was her deep faith in God. She shared it with her family and all who knew her and it sustained her all her life. Harriet had the gift of hospitality and always welcomed visitors.

Harriet was preceded in death by her parents, husband, two sisters: Marian (P. Howard) Henderson, Bernice (Harold) Halvorsen, and three half-sisters: Mabel (Otto) Schultz, Myrtle (Tom) Tobias and Gladys Nelson.

Harriet is survived by her six children: James (Mary), Mary (Lyle) Aadahl, John, Naomi (Wayne) Peterson, Joel (Mary-Ann), and Paul (Darlene).

Twelve grandchildren: Walter (Ann) Rolf, Audrey (Shawn) Adrian, Peder (Alison) Aadahl, Steven, Ruth and John Peterson, Sarah (Jeremy) Vance, Christina (Jake) Hill, Josiah (Courtney) Rolf, Daniel (Kayla) Rolf, Joshua (Kelsey) Rolf and Hannah Rolf.

19 Great Grandchildren: Jakob and Gracia Rolf; James, Alette and Thea Adrian; Brady, Noelle and Addie Aadahl; Grace, Christian and Annamarie Vance; Evan, Brielle, Ava and Jayla Hill; Dagne, Henrik and Thorin Rolf; and Kensley Rolf.

First Day of School

By Lyn Turenne
My memories of Trail School go back long before I even started school in 1949. My older brother and sister brought home stories of school that sounded like magic to me; how I longed to be part of that magic.

One of my first memories of school is one of my dad picking me up, setting me on his lap along with an old chalkboard and a piece of chalk. Very crudely, because he was a farmer and not an artist, he would draw a little stick Linda with a brown lunch bag in her hand walking over our hills toward Trail. I would giggle and plead to start "right now"! Dad would smile, a little sadly perhaps and say "in a couple of years, in a couple of years.!" This scene was repeated as often as I could persuade him and the couple of years flew by and one bright September day my mother received a very special postcard in the mail from her friend, Lorena Hovelsrud.

Linda Goes to School
She's gone to school, my Linda, so tiny just turned six, And, oh the house is empty, the clock how loud it ticks!

No laughter in the garden, no swinging on the gate, Just quietness and order and fire upon the grate.

She's gone to school, my Linda, in brand new pinafore, To learn the art of letters and dip in ancient lore.

She's eager for the future and sturdy for her size; But oh, the heart is weary before the head is wise.

She's gone to school my Linda, so sweet and unafraid Her toes in shiny slippers, her white blond hair in braids, And here where she's been happy, a little prayer I pray.

God bless the host of Linda's alone to school today.

Did my mom feel the same tug at the heartstrings (apron strings too) that I felt as I sent my youngest off to school? I will never forget the enormity that I would become a part of. Trail School was a small school that now would be classified as a country school, but to a little six year old it was large and scary. (While working on an all school reunion many years ago, I discovered there are only 15 steps leading up to very ordinary sized doors.) My cousin, Walter Handy, took me to the school the first day. How long the path from Grandma Handy's where we were left to the school. The steps to the school stretched endlessly to two enormous doors where the "big" kids lurked! They all looked big to me.

Though the 8 years I spent at Trail School somehow blend into a warm fuzzy memory with no distinct years attached to it, there are very distinct things I do recall. I can smell the steamy wetness as we hurried in from sliding down the "big hill" during recess. Our mittens hissed and steamed on the old large radiators as we bent our heads and began to study again. An acrid scent sometimes filled our noses as the mittens dried and began to scorch before we took them off.

I can feel the excitement as the "big doors" were opened in December so we could work on our Christmas program.... the highlight of the year. The anticipation built up for two whole weeks so even now I can feel it explode into such excitement that I can smell the pine scent and candle wax. I can hear our school bell calling us in from recess. The first bell sounded slow and beckoning, the second bell insistent and angry because if you did not return to school during the 5 minutes between bells you were late and you would be punished. I can hear the chains of the giant merry go round clicking on the steel pole in a spring breeze. We could hear it through the open windows calling us to play as we anxiously watched the clock for recess time.

I can taste my Aunt Lizzie's delicious vegetable soup on a cold winter's day, the "real" mashed potatoes, the salty gravy and all the delicious goodies she would make to please us. Yes, all I have to do is close my eyes and for a moment go back over 70 years and I can smell, sense, hear and taste my old Trail School.

We learned a lot more than basics in the old school for we were taught sharing, responsibility and caring for one another. There were only 4 in our class so you could say we were the top four or the bottom four depending on how one looked at it. But, however one looked at it one could tell we received a lot of individual attention and help. Trail school, though it is small in comparison to other schools and colleges I've attended, still looms large in my heart and in my memories. Happy back to school week!

The Minnesota Department of Natural Resources has confirmed the invasive algae starry stonewort in Lake Bemidji, adjacent to the city of Bemidji in Beltrami County. Lake Bemidji is close to other lakes where starry stonewort was previously confirmed.

DNR staff found starry stonewort in Lake Bemidji while conducting a more general survey of algae in the lake. Funding for this research was provided by the Minnesota Environment and Natural Resources Trust Fund as recommended by the Legislative-Citizen Commission on Minnesota Resources.

Follow-up surveys are being conducted to determine the extent of starry stonewort distribution in Lake Bemidji. If surveys confirm the starry stonewort is in localized areas of the lake, removal in those areas might be pursued. Such a response could include hand pulling, herbicide applications and other methods as appropriate.

Starry stonewort has never been eradicated from any U.S. lake or river, but treatment or careful removal can help reduce the risk of spread and relieve associated nuisance impacts on water-related recreational activities.

Early detection is key to effective management.

Starry stonewort has now been confirmed in 22 water bodies in Minnesota. It was first confirmed in Minnesota in 2015.

In late summer and early fall, starry stonewort's small white star-shaped bulbils become more visible, making it easier to distinguish from other aquatic plants. Information on how to identify starry stonewort can be found on the DNR's website (//mndnr.gov/Invasives/AquaticPlants/StarryStonewort). If people think they've found starry stonewort or any other invasive species new to a lake or river, they should report it to the DNR by contacting their area invasive species specialist (//mndnr.gov/Invasives/AIS/Contacts.html).

Starry stonewort is an algae that looks like native aquatic plants and can form dense mats, which can interfere with recreational uses of a lake and compete with native plants. It is most likely spread when fragments have not been properly cleaned from trailered boats, personal watercraft, docks, boat lifts, anchors or other water-related equipment.

Whether or not a lake has any invasive species, Minnesota law requires people to:

- Clean watercraft, trailers and equipment to remove aquatic plants and prohibited invasive species.
- Drain all water and leave drain plugs out during transport.
- Dispose of unwanted bait in the trash.
- Never release bait, plants or aquarium pets into Minnesota waters.
- Dry docks, lifts and rafts for 21 days before moving them from one waterbody to another.

These additional steps reduce the risk of spreading aquatic invasive species:

- Decontaminate watercraft and equipment – find free stations on the courtesy decontamination page of the DNR website (//mndnr.gov/Decon).
- Spray with high-pressure water or rinse with very hot water (120 degrees for at least two minutes or 140 degrees for at least 10 seconds).
- Dry watercraft and equipment for at least five days before using in another water body.

More information is available on the aquatic invasive species page of the DNR website (//mndnr.gov/AIS).

Greseth, Peterson, Schill, Dykhoff and Caspers in Victory Lane at GRP

by Keith Cumming

The final weekend of racing had 134 cars checked in for night one of the two day Labor Day weekend of racing at the Greenbush Race Park.

The NLRA Wissota Late Models would send 22 of 23 cars to take the green flag for their 25 lap feature and outside polesitter Jesse Teunis was quickly out in front. Teunis lead the first four circuits before Mike Greseth put a slider on him in corner four to take the lead. Three cautions during the middle portion of the race kept everyone close with the last caution coming with four to go. On the restart, Greseth had his hands full as he had to hold off a determined Joey Pederson. When the checkers flew Greseth got the win with Pederson finishing a close second and Brad Seng third. Heats wins went to Pederson, Seng and Lance Schill.

Tyler Peterson started on the pole for the 16 Wissota Modified feature and never looked back, as he cruised to his ninth win of the year and a sweep of the night. Dustin Wahl would finish second and Brandon Copp third. Aaron Holtan and Ryan Johnson picked up the other heat wins.

Cole Greseth would lead the first half of the 16 Wissota Street feature until eleventh place starter Kyle Dykhoff made the pass for the lead coming out of corner four with seven to go. In the closing laps Dykhoff would hold off Weston Ramsrud for the win, with Tucker Pederson finishing third. Heat wins went to Jeremy Gust and Jerome Berger.

The Wissota Midwest Mods

would once again have trouble with cautions. Lance Schill lead through all the cautions and after caution number seven the race went green, white, checkered as Schill picked up the win and the sweep. Aaron Blacklance finished second and had to win a B Main to make the feature coming from the 14th starting position. Taylor Jacobson finished third and won his heat. Haley Lee would win the other B Main while Connor Drewry and Justin Olson picked up the other heat wins.

Austin Carlson lead most of the 16 car Wissota Pure Stock feature before he developed car trouble on a restart on lap 10. Dusty Caspers pounced on the opportunity and grabbed the lead. Caspers was able to hold off Michael Roth and Dave Meyer to pick up his second win of the year and a sweep of the night. Josh Berg and Deryk Weleski picked up the other heat wins.

Alex Truscinski sat on the pole for the MinnKota Power! Lightning Sprint feature and was out in front when the green flag dropped. Kelsi Pederson started fifth and was able to run Truscinski down and make the pass for the lead coming out of corner four. The Syverson (Rudolph and Clara) reunion 2022

By Norris Syverson

The Syverson reunion is held every year on the third Saturday in July. People started arriving about 11:30. Much joy seemed to be in the hearts of all the people as they came. There was much handshaking, hugging and a few kisses too. People carrying their pots and pans with all the good food for our dinner and lunch. About 12 o'clock, after our table grace had been said or sung, dinner was served. Kent gave a little talk before we started to eat about a few things. Usually us siblings got to go first in line, now it is only Faith and myself left. For all the food, about everything you could think of, so you had to watch how much you took of different things.

After much talking and our dinner had settled it was time for our hayride. This year, Mark pulled one hay rack with his Oliver tractor and Matt pulled one hay rack with a CA Allis and both racks were full of people. We didn't go on as long of a ride as we usually go, but we went slower, so we could see all the beautiful flowers and plants along the road in the ditches. The beautiful flowers, the green corn and beans, the trees, everything was so beautiful. God made all of this for us to enjoy and we did enjoy everything.

This year, Philip Quam had an interesting stone, a singing or ringing stone.

He couldn't remember where they found it, but this stone, when you hit it with a hammer it sounded just like a bell. I had never heard of a stone like this and I don't think anybody that was there had ever heard anything like it. The stone was a foot or two round. How interesting?

After we got back from our hayride, lunch was ready inside the church, so everyone who was hungry had a bite to eat. A lot of people had left for their wayward home. A lot of people were missing this year, so many had other plans, everybody can't make it every year, but we who were there really enjoyed each other. I'm sure some hadn't seen each other for years. There were about 80 people at our reunion this year. There were 10 new babies born, no married – 1 divorce.

We were really saddened this year by the deaths of our sister Mary and brother Gordon and cousin Viola. How suddenly death can come. Now there are only 2 left of the Rudolph and Clara family - Faith and Norris. Time takes its toll.

We had a perfect reunion day, overcast with a few clouds to shade us from the hot sun.

So, until next year, if we are here, we just ask God to bless us and we thank Him for all His blessings of the past year.
