Pistol Annie was on to Stillwater

Pistol Annie was on its way to Stillwater. The pumpkin that has been grown at Wade and Kelly Klema's residence near Gonvick all summer. The pumpkin was loaded on the truck last Thursday and was headed for Stillwater Harvest Fest. That is held the second weekend in October of each year. The pumpkin was not entered in the Gonvick Pumpkin Day event because it was not done growing and they wanted to enter it in the Stillwater contest. Wade, who has been fighting ALS has had a pumpkin in the Gonvick contest each year with the help of JJ Solberg. Last year was smaller at 1553 and before was a record 1990 pound one winning the contest both years. Pollination date was July 5, 2022 and she is 93 days old! Several residents from the area were down for the big event. The weigh off came and their pumpkin weighed in at 1,794 pounds. That was fifth place for the one that had been brought down from Gonvick. The first place winner at 2210 pounds took home the $5,000 prize. Other events at Fall Festival in downtown Stillwater on the banks of the St. Croix River last weekend. They had giant pumpkins, chili cook-off, pumpkin carvers, kid games, bake-offs, food vendors, bluegrass music, a pumpkin drop and a pumpkin regatta on the river and more.

It took teamwork to get "Pistol Annie" on the flat bed to take the trip to Stillwater for the Pumpkin Fest. It could not come down with a crack or it would be disqualified.

Representing Gonvick at the Stillwater Harvest Fest weighing in at 1794.5 was Pistol Annie. She came in light according to her measurements but still a great year placing 5th. Many area residents went down supported them! Kim Solberg said, "It meant the world to walk down the streets and seeing so many people we knew!" Eldin Okstad reading his mail during Mail Call, just like it was when they were in the service. It was an important time for the servicemen.

Eldin Okstad on Honor Flight to Washington, DC

An Honor Flight left Grand Forks for a 3-day trip to Washington, DC. Eldin Okstad of Gully was one of the 100 veterans chosen to go on the flight. What started when his wife Alice saw an ad on TV to get an application for the trip. A post card came and he was put on a wait list. COVID shut everything down. After a year and 1/2 he received a letter from Fargo, North Dakota that he was selected for the Honor Flight. The veterans Honor Flight is a national organization all free to veterans that is run by volunteers. It is not associated by the government. The cost per veteran is approximately $1,600 for everything, the flight, hotel guides and tours.

The group left Grand Forks by Allegiant Air Lines for Baltimore and Washington International airport. They were put on buses coded, blue, green, orange and red to being their tour that started at Ft. McHenry. They walked and looked around the building before they drove by the Capitol and White House en route to the FDR Memorial. The tour ended Sunday at their Marriott Hotel with a dinner and social hour.

Monday, they boarded their color coded busses and toured the National Archives, Navy Memorial, Air Force Memorial where they were each given a box meal.

They arrived at Arlington National and Cemetery for the Changing of the Guard Ceremony. That was a very impressive ceremony. From there to the Iwo Jima memorial. They had beautiful weather and the general public was very nice to them.

They returned to their hotel for a social hour and dinner with a special speaker. That ended with a Mail Call of almost 2,000 letters that were passed around.

The organizers of the event contacted families of each veteran to write letters thanking them for their service. Eldin's wife Alice had mentioned that to several people and they all sent letters that were brought to Washington for the mail call. Just like when they were in the military service to get mail call. Tuesday was another busy day as they headed for the WWII Memorial and photo of the group. They also saw the Vietnam Wall, Korean Memorial and Lincoln Memorial. Eldin was glad to see the real Vietnam Wall after seeing it when it was in Gonvick this past summer. They had another box lunch at the Lincoln Memorial before the American History Smithsonian. Eldin served four years in the Navy from 1969 to 1972. He was at San Diego and then on to Vietnam. He served on the USS Iwo Jima, a helicopter and troop carrier. He did not know what to do after he got out of the Navy so he went to the University on the GI Bill. He did not want to become a teacher so he started driving truck, and doing plumbing and carpentry work. Which he still does a little of today. Returning late on Tuesday the group was greeted by relatives and friends and an assembly of police cars.

Gladiolus are a variety of colors. Lynn Turenne of Clearbrook is the master gardener of this flower. She takes up over 300 bulbs each year and plants them in her garden to share when they are in bloom. This year she was not able to share as many as the deer moved in to taste the delicate gladiolus before she could get them all out.

Home Country

By Slim Randles

Just having a cup of coffee with Windy Wilson can sometimes be educational. Today? Well... Alphonse Wilson here, just celebratin’ a nice day with poetry.
So you’re prolly askin’ yourself, how do you go about writin’ a poem Windy? See, you just gotta sling yerself into a artistic mood. You know, like them Dutch masters used to do before they died and got made into cigars. You start out kinda easy, and think about lilies and daffodils and leetle fluffy cloudlets that might grow into a storm someday. Then you throw in a look that a puppy gives you ... one a-them looks of love like just before he throws up on the rug. That’s how you do it. Then you just get a pencil and a piece of paper and rip ‘n snort.
So here’s my poem today. I call it “Circulational Qandary” by Alphonse Wilson.
I wandered lonely as a heart
That sends my corpuscles through waiting veins
And all the might of pump- ing blood
Couldn’t hold onto them reins.
Bold rider, never, never canst thou smooch
Lady Fair upon the mouth.
Nay I say to you naysayers
Or just keep ridin’ south
Oh beats my heart with laughing

At corporational cruds,
I right now feel like quaffing
A six pack of good suds
And though you come out bleedin’
And need a tranfusional fix
It sure beats hell out of weedin’
The garden out here in the sticks.
Well, there it is ... do you feel transformational? Boy howdy I sure do.
Nothin’ like a poem to get a cowboy’s mind right, you know.
And you can tell ‘em I said so.

Brought to you by ol’ Windy hisself, on “Home Country with Slim Randles” on a classic country radio station near you.

4-H Youth exhibit their best at the 2022 Minnesota State Fair

By Kayla Mystic, Clearwater County 4-H Extension Educator 218-694-6151

4-H youth from across Minnesota again showcased their learning in the 4-H Building at the Minnesota State Fair. Over 130 demonstrations were delivered and over 1,900 general exhibits were on display. In a continuation of the virtual state showcase format developed in 2020, nearly 90 of the general exhibits were judged virtually this year.

Throughout the year, 4-H youth select project areas that reflect personal areas of interest and pursue hands-on learning in both self-directed and guided environments. The results of their learning are exhibited at county fairs and other showcase events across the state. A collection of the best exhibits from each fair and showcase are brought to presentations in the 4-H Building at the Minnesota State Fair.

Exhibiting project work and delivering public presentations at the state fair provides youth an opportunity to showcase their achievements and continue learning through interactive conference judging with project experts and team experiences.

The presentations, exhibits and presence of 4-H youth from diverse communities across Minnesota brought renewed and welcomed energy to the 4-H Building. See the full results and photos at z.umn.edu/4h-state-fair-results.

Joke Time ...

The Swedes and the Norwegians had a football game, starting at 10 a.m. For 2 hours they played a scoreless game.

When the lunch bell rang at high noon, the Norwegians walked off the field to go home for lunch.

3 plays later, the Swedes scored.

We collect used eye glasses in the Leader-Record office in Gonvick and at the Clearbrook-Leonard Senior Center. We do this for the Gonvick Lions Club and they are put to very good use.

Does anyone need old newspapers for their bird cages, their new puppies or for the garden center? We are getting ready to put some in the garbage bins for pick up. It would make the load lighter if we got rid of some of them before that point.

Obituaries in the Canary are also put on our website for you to see. Go online at triconary.com. They are free and updated as they come into our office.

The Library Link in Gonvick is open three days a week. Check out various items or order what they don't have in stock for you. Or call 487-6220 to request something to be ordered for you. Hours are Monday 9 to 11 am, Wednesday 3 to 5 pm and Thursday 4 to 7 pm.

Reinbold Trial ends in Guilty Verdict

After a week-long trial by jury, an Oklee, Minnesota, man on Friday was found guilty on two counts of second-degree murder. A Pennington County jury found Eric Reinbold, 46, guilty of the July 9, 2021, killing of his wife, Lissette Reinbold, 34. The charges were second-degree murder with intent, and second-degree murder while committing assault. The jury found him guilty on both counts.

For the second stage, the jury deliberated for a few minutes and returned to the courtroom. To the question of whether the defendant stabbed Lissette Reinbold multiple times and left her body for her child to find, the jury said yes.

Eric Reinbold was then handcuffed and escorted out of the courtroom. His sentencing has not yet been scheduled.
