2023 First Lady of Clearwater County Revealed

By: Darlene Sawyer
The Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Clearbrook was the site of the luncheon on Saturday, May 6, 2023, held to honor the 2023 First Lady of Clearwater County. Bonnie Engen and Susan Sandland coordinated the food and colorful spring-themed decorations, Laurie Brein and Donna Rae Jacobson acted as greeters and ticket takers.

Sponsors of the event were the First National Bank of Bagley, Northern State Bank of Gonvick, the Riverwood Bank of Bagley, and the Clearwater County Historical Society. The M. C. of the program was Tamara Edevold, Director of the Clearwater County Historical Society, and her assistants.

Tamara welcomed the large audience and remembered her own mother, Ruth Anderson, who was the 1994 First Lady, but has passed away. Former 2015 First Lady Ardis Thompson gave the opening prayer, and former First Ladies in attendance (1977-2022) were asked to stand and be acknowledged.

Following the delicious brunch, Jan Feil was introduced as the recipient of the First Lady award in 2022. Every nomination letter received in 2022 listed these qualities of Jan's: loving, kind, generous, thoughtful, organized, dedicated, hardworking, compassionate, strong Christian faith, a chauffeur, cheerleader, and supporter. She has "worn many hats". She and her husband reside on a farm near the Mississippi River near Lake Itasca State Park. She explained with a smile, "My dad always said, 'You've got to show up for people.'" Her advice to all was "To overlook the messiness of life and look for the beauty in the little things. My mom liked to emphasize "clean" underwear."

Musical selections included two duets by Tiffany Ehresmann (on piano) with her daughter Callie (on violin).

Tamara explained that "we need to celebrate the contributions of women in our area as they are our heritage. In 2023, the national theme to celebrate women is "Celebrating Women Who Tell Our Stories". I zeroed in on our print media to include the hundreds of women who reported the "Local" news in the Bagley Independent, the Farmers Independent, the Gonvick Banner, the Olberg Journal, the Clearbrook Journal, the Leader Record, the Shevlin/Beltrami County Advocate, and the Clearwater Crystal. ...And, so it began. ...over 100 years of local news gathering that was phased out in the early 2000's. Some of the early township reporters included Margaret Davids, Conrad Lorentz, Delores Johnson, Violet Widseth, Walter Day, Grace Ekre, Ella Lindberg, Gene Beltz, Jr., and Pearl Highberg. Pearl's last column was in 2007. "

Tamara also put together a slide show featuring each of these writers and their columns with information gleaned from the Historical Society files. Even the placemats from this year's First Lady luncheon contained excerpts from township news files. It was a great history reminder of 'days gone by'.

Gladys Lueken received a special clock from Tamara Edevold, Director of Clearwater County Historical Society, as her award for being chosen 2023 First Lady of Clearwater County.

The last task of the program was to identify the 2023 First Lady of Clearwater County. Tamara announced that Gladys Lueken, age 74, of Bagley was the 2023 recipient of this year's honor. She was the daughter of Goodwin and Bernice Traaseth of Bagley. She is a 1966 graduate of Bagley High School.

A 1970 graduate of BSU with a business education degree, and an employee from 1971-2004 at the Clearwater County Memorial Hospital as financial officer. She has two sons, one daughter, and seven grandchildren. She was married to Albert Lueken in 1999. Her life has been one of giving. In the nomination letters, there were at least 30 organizations which have benefitted from her work. These include the Faith Lutheran Church congregation where she is a regular greeter and usher. She has served on their altar guild, attends Bible study, serves on council, and volunteers for Sunday School and youth activities. She has been an active 4-H member and supporter-sometimes exhibiting nearly 100 items at the local fair. She has been a treasurer for many organizations including Rotary, Bagley Senior Center, treasurer for her church, and conference treasurer for the NW MN synod. She is a driver who drives people to their medical appointments and organizes blood drives. She is a fundraiser. Besides making quilts for raffles, she plans events and projects to raise funds or awareness for local non-profits like the Farm By The Lake, the Salvation Army school supply project, Project Linus, and Lutheran World Relief. She founded the Prayer Shawl Ministry and projects for Mission Work Days.

Gladys also finds time to make lefse at the Lake Itasca Pioneer Farmers event, organized the Clearwater Community holiday meal, helped with Faith Lutheran's fall festival, and Ode To Spring events, and assists with the van project for the Day Activity Center. She also helps pack food during the Feed My Starving Children event and delivers food for the 'Meals on Wheels' program.

With her love of quilting, she has made over 100 quilts and banners which are totally lovely. Many of her sewn items are donated to causes. She explained, "I love quilting. I could do it every day. I also enjoy reading, so I really appreciate our Bagley Library system.

Gladys received a special clock from Tamara as her award for being chosen 2023 First Lady. She added, "Thanks to the people who nominated me, the selection committee, and the people who support me in my missions. My advice to others is to continue what you like; not what someone else does."

Musical selections were provided by Callie Ehresmann, who played the violin with her mom, Tiffany Ehresmann accompanying her on the piano.

Thanks to Tamara and her helpers at the Historical Society for the interesting and wonderful program.

Two appointments were made to the Gonvick City Council. Ashley Reichert was appointed to fill the position that had been held by Cory Solberg. Cory was appointed to the mayor position after Candace Coulter resigned. Ashley is an employee at the Northern State Bank in Gonvick. Corey works for the Gully Fertilizer Plant.

2023 Progressive Ag Farm Safety Day was held on May 2

The 2023 Progressive Ag Farm Safety Day was held on May 2, 2023 at the Bagley Hockey Arena. Six graders from Clearbrook-Gonvick, Bagley, Fosston, Faith Hope and Love Academy and Win-E-Mac schools were all in attendance. We had 198 students attend the event.

We had ten different stations that students attended. Each station was 20 minutes long. The stations were fire, electrical, chemical, grain bin/tractor, small engine, food, first aid, animal, and mental health and well-being. Many of the stations were interactive and the students could experience things such as holding the water hose on the fire truck and making a stress ball. It was a day filled of learning.

We had many wonderful presenters that I would like to thank for giving of their time. They are Ian Willberg and Adam Sweno from Clearwater Polk-Electric, Jordy Jordan and Ryan Schipper Bagley Fire Department, Katy Braaten and Melanie Anderson from White Earth Mental Health, Dustyn Bellefy-Small Engines, Bryantt Bolduc Tractor, Terri Nelson-Clearwater Nursing Service, Grain Bin, Clarence Lacroix-Clearwater Sheriff's Department, Mahya Gudungan and Ryan Schultz Sanford Ambulance, Chad Carlson and Myah Walker-animal safety, Kayla Johnshoy and Layla Engebretson-food safety, and Randy Bodensteiner and Renee Keezer-Chemical Safety. Other sponsors that help put this event on was Headwaters Farm Bureau, Clearwater County 4-H, Clearwater County Extension, and the Clearwater County Fair.

All the students received a Progressive Ag Farm Safety Day Shirt and a goodie bag to take home. Those that sponsored the goodie bags and gave items to be included were the DNR, Clearwater County 4-H, Polk County 4-H, Sanford Health, Essentia Health, Smile Designs by Sandwick, Randy Bodensteiner, and the Clearwater Nursing Service. I also, want to thank Willberg's for brining lawnmowers to use for the small engine demonstration. The youth were able to learn many safety tips and seemed to have a great day learning. I also want to thank the BFCG Hockey Association for letting us hold the event at the hockey arena and donating the rental cost. Thanks to everyone that gave of their time and talents. You are making an impact in the lives of area youth.

Former 2015 First Lady Ardis Thompson gave the opening prayer.

Home Country

By Slim Randles

"I took Duckworth to the dog show up in the city last weekend," Dud said.

The other members of the Mule Barn truck stop's world dilemma think tank and philosophy counter just looked at him.

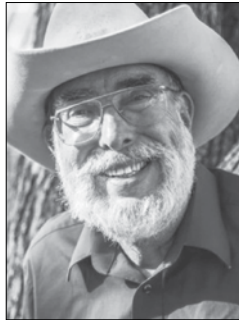

Dud put it gently. "Dud, was this so he could get some inspiration on looking good?"

Duckworth was a medium-sized dog that found Dud while Dud was walking and thinking about the novel he's writing. No one answered the ad he put in the Valley Weekly Miracle, so he was henceforth known as Duckworth, for some reason Dud seemed to want to keep to himself. To be honest, Duckworth looked like he fell out of the ugly tree and hit every branch on the way down.

"No, I was going to enter him in the dog show," Dud said. "Took him right up to the registration table and tried to get him in a class. The lady there looked at ol' Duck and asked to see his papers."

Dud grinned. "I told her they were back home on the floor of the laundry room. She didn't think it was funny."

Now Duckworth had been introduced to the other dogs in the group at the sale barn, as is the custom, and Dud's pals had been hesitant to ask much about him. Duckworth looked like something put together by a committee with a sense of humor. Oh, he was a dog ... no doubt about that. But what kind of dog was he? It made for interesting coffee speculation, that's for sure.

"You know," Dud said, "Anita was against me getting any kind of dog until Duckworth came along. When I explained to her that Duckworth was a bird dog ... a duck dog, actually, and that he'd help me bring more birds home, she finally gave in."

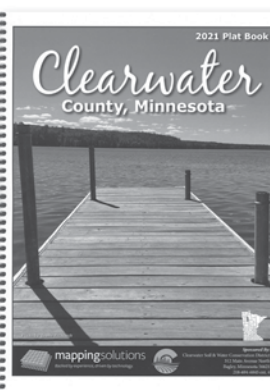

"He's a bird dog?" Steve said. "What kind?"

"Now that's what that dog show lady asked me, you know? I had to explain to her about canardier terriers, because she wasn't familiar with them."

"Canardier terriers, you betcha," Dud said, grinning, "why, I'll bet you canardier tell what kind of terrier he is!"

For the best friend a human being is able to have, please consider adopting a dog or cat from your local shelter.
