CWLC Gonvick roof update

The new roof is now complete over our West '78 addition at Clear Waters Life Center Gonvick. We are so grateful for the generous outpouring of financial support from our community and from the George W. Neilson Foundation Grant that has made the completion of this much needed project a reality! We have experienced what can be done when we work together to accomplish something. The community has been so supportive of our fund raising efforts, our dinners and pizza oven events while building community connections at the same time! Thank you!

We will soon reveal the plan for the East '78 addition which is also in need of a new roof. That project will be the final roof as we will have upgraded the full facility starting with the Gym in 2010. Step by step progress is made.

Incident at school caused closure

The Clearbrook-Gonvick school had an incident that caused closure of the school on Monday, October 21.

The company, Corporate Technologies out of North Dakota, that the school hired to watch network security had an alarm on the systems. It came across on Thursday, October 17 and the school was called. It was fortunate that with MEA there was no school. All systems were down which included computers, Chrome books, no intercom in the school and all electronics. The company came in and they were still working on Monday when they had a special meeting before the regular school board meeting. They were 80% completed and securing the system back to full service.

All staff and board members were required to get a new password into the system. A question was asked about safety if the fire alarm system was not working but that was on a separate unit. With that update the board decided to have school again on Tuesday, October 22.

A question about insurance coverage was also brought up and will be brought to the board.

The school recently hired Tyler Gunn, a technology person, who was working with members of Corporate Technologies.

Who assumes responsibility

Charley Reese's Final column! Charley Reese's final column for the Orlando Sentinel. He had been a journalist for 49 years. He retired and this was his last column on July 29, 2001. He passed away on May 21, 2013.

The article is completely neutral, neither anti republican or democrat. Charlie Reese, a retired reporter for the Orlando Sentinel, has hit the nail directly on the head, defining clearly who it is that in the final analysis must assume responsibility for the judgments made that impact each one of us every day.

-By Charlie Reese

Politicians are the only people in the world who create problems and then campaign against them.

Have you ever wondered, if both the Democrats and the Republicans are against deficits, WHY do we have deficits?

Have you ever wondered, if all the politicians are against inflation and high taxes, WHY do we have inflation and high taxes?

You and I don't propose a federal budget. The President does.

You and I don't have the Constitutional authority to vote on appropriations. The House of Representatives does. You and I don't write the tax code, Congress does.

You and I don't set fiscal policy, Congress does.

You and I don't control monetary policy, the Federal Reserve Bank does.

One hundred senators, 435 congressmen, one President, and nine Supreme Court justices equates to 545 human beings out of the 300 million are directly, legally, morally, and individually responsible for the domestic problems that plague this country.

I excluded the members of the Federal Reserve Board because that problem was created by the Congress. In 1913, Congress delegated its Constitutional duty to provide a sound currency to a federally chartered, but private, central bank.

I excluded all the special interests and lobbyists for a sound reason. They have no legal authority. They have no ability to coerce a senator, a congressman, or a President to do one cotton-picking thing. I don't care if they offer a politician $1 million dollars in cash. The politician has the power to accept or reject it. No matter what the lobbyist promises, it is the legislator's responsibility to determine how he votes.

Those 545 human beings spend much of their energy convincing you that what they did is not their fault. They cooperate in this common con regardless of party.

What separates a politician from a normal human being is an excessive amount of gall. No normal human being would have the gall of a Speaker, who stood up and criticized the President for creating deficits. (The President can only propose a budget. He cannot force the Congress to accept it.)

The Constitution, which is the supreme law of the land, gives sole responsibility to the House of Representatives for originating and approving appropriations and taxes. Who is the speaker of the House? (John Boehner. He is the leader of the majority party. He and fellow House members, not the President, can approve any budget they want.) If the President vetoes it, they can pass it over his veto if they agree to. [The House has passed a budget but the Senate has not approved a budget in over three years. The President's proposed budgets have gotten almost unanimous rejections in the Senate in that time.]

It seems inconceivable to me that a nation of 300 million cannot replace 545 people who stand convicted -- by present facts -- of incompetence and irresponsibility. I can't think of a single domestic problem that is not traceable directly to those 545 people. When you fully grasp the plain truth that 545 people exercise the power of the federal government, then it must follow that what exists is what they want to exist.

If the tax code is unfair, it's because they want it unfair.

If the budget is in the red, it's because they want it in the red.

If the Army & Marines are in Iraq and Afghanistan it's because they want them in Iraq and Afghanistan.

If they do not receive social security but are on an elite retirement plan not available to the people, it's because they want it that way.

There are no insoluble government problems.

Do not let these 545 people shift the blame to bureaucrats, whom they hire and whose jobs they can abolish; to lobbyists, whose gifts and advice they can reject; to regulators, to whom they give the power to regulate and from whom they can take this power.

Above all, do not let them con you into the belief that there exists disembodied mystical forces like "the economy," "inflation," or "politics" that prevent them from doing what they take an oath to do.

Those 545 people, and they alone, are responsible. They, and they alone, have the power.

They, and they alone, should be held accountable by the people who are their bosses. Provided the voters have the gumption to manage their own employees... We should vote all of them out of office and clean up their mess!

Tax his land, Tax his bed; Tax the table, At which he's fed. Tax his tractor, Tax his mule; Teach him taxes Are the rule. Tax his work, Tax his pay; He works for peanuts anyway! Tax his cow, Tax his goat; Tax his pants, Tax his coat. Tax his ties, Tax his shirt; Tax his work, Tax his dirt. Tax his tobacco, Tax his drink, Tax him if he Tries to think. Tax his cigars, Tax his beers; If he cries; Tax his tears. Tax his car, Tax his gas; Find other ways To tax his ass. Tax all he has Then let him know; That you won't be done Till he has no dough.

When he screams and hollers, Then tax him some more; Tax him till He's good and sore. Then tax his coffin, Tax his grave, Tax the sod in which he's laid...

Put these words upon his tomb, 'Taxes drove me to my doom...'

When he's gone, Do not relax; Its time to apply 'The inheritance tax, Accounts Receivable Tax, Building Permit Tax, CDL license Tax, Cigarette Tax, Corporate Income Tax, Dog License Tax, Excise Taxes, Federal Income Tax, Federal Unemployment Tax (FUTA), Fishing License Tax, Food License Tax, Gasoline Tax (currently 44.75 cents per gallon). Gross Receipts Tax. Hunting License Tax, Inheritance Tax, Inventory Tax, IRS Interest Charges IRS Penalties (tax on top of tax), Liquor Tax, Luxury Taxes, Marriage License Tax, Medicare Tax, Personal Property Tax, Property Tax, Real Estate Tax, Service Charge Tax, Social Security Tax, Road Usage Tax, Recreational Vehicle Tax, Sales Tax, School Tax, State Income Tax, State Unemployment Tax (SUTA), Telephone Federal Excise Tax, Telephone Federal Universal Service Fee Tax, Telephone Federal, State and Local Surcharge Taxes, Telephone Minimum Usage Surcharge Tax, Telephone Recurring and Nonrecurring Charges Tax, Telephone State and Local Tax, Telephone Usage Charge Tax, Utility Taxes, Vehicle License Registration Tax, Vehicle Sales Tax, Watercraft Registration Tax, Well Permit Tax, Workers Compensation Tax .

Not one of these taxes existed 100 years ago & our nation was the most prosperous in the world. We had absolutely no national debt, had the largest middle class in the world, and Mom stayed home to raise the kids.

What in the heck happened? Can you spell 'politicians'?

Home Country

By Slim Randles

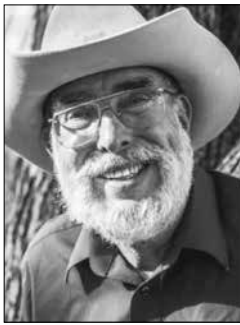

Ah ... politics! If you're a responsible American, as I often pretend to be, you'll have watched and read and listened to as much hogwash on every side of every question ad nauseum, and we'll all troop to the polls, read the names and say "Is this the best you guys can do for candidates?"

And then we'll vote, anyway. And that's why I'd like to suggest March 4 as a new national holiday, it being the entire term of the only non-toxic President of the United States.

His name was David Rice Atchison, who later on had Atchison, Kansas named for him, along with one third of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad.

Never heard of him? Well, he was a pro-slavery Democrat who never met a bottle of booze he didn't like. But back in 1849, when Atchison became President for an entire day, some people knew how to throw parties. And Atchison spent his entire term as President sleeping off a dandy drunk. (You can always turn here for the real skinny on history, of course).

Here's what happened. At noon on March 4, 1849, the term of President James Polk ended. At that very moment, the term of incoming President John Taylor was scheduled to begin. But Taylor was a religious man, and March 4 was on a Sunday, you see, so he said he'd wait until noon on Monday to be sworn in.

This left a 24-hour period where the United States didn't have a President. Normally, the vice president would take over, but his term expired at Sunday noon, just like Polk's.

So we look on the list of successors and who do we find? David Rice Atchison of Missouri, who was president pro-tem of the Senate.

His headstone says "President of the United States for one day" too.

But we should set March 4 aside in honor of this man, because he was the only leader of this nation who didn't get at least half the country mad at him. For the rest of his life, Atchison enjoyed polishing his historical hiccup, describing his presidency as "the honestest administration this country ever had."

May his example shine forever.

Brought to you with a smile from Slim's just-out fun novel, Whimsy Castle. At better book stores and on the internet at Amazon, Kindle, Barnes and Noble, Ebay, Thriftbooks and Page Publishing.

Letter to the Editor

Every vote matters! Your Vote and My Vote Counts. How valuable do you think your one vote is? I know that most everyone in our neck of the woods realizes that Freedom is not Free. Our families through the generations have fought and died for all that our forefathers designed, by the help of God, in our Constitution and Bill of Rights. Unless we use that "Gift" and "VOTE", we are literally stomping on their graves. Freedom for that gift to Vote was fought for.

If you have FAITH your VOTE does matter. In John 6 when Jesus had 5,000 in attendance to feed, his followers said they did not have enough money to purchase food for all. However, one young boy was willing to give his small lunch (that's us people), to Jesus. He gave it willingly. Of course, Jesus received it and He blessed it, and it multiplied as His followers passed it out to all 5,000 with extra left over!

Why do I talk about this? Because all scripture is living and is the same yesterday, today and tomorrow. Does He care about your one little vote? Some will say it won't count (but God knows), right now, that is all you and I have to give towards choosing what He has given us to choose for governing us, He can multiply it.

Some will say, "I don't like either person, so I'm just not voting". Well, it is Not all about the Person. What do you want according to all their Policies and Platform and Performance.

We will all be held accountable someday to what we did with our vote (opportunity). In the Living Word Mathew 25:14 talks about a Boss who gives and entrusts to each of his workers a portion of his possession according to their ability, to use to best of their ability for "his sake" to improve his business while he was gone. Well, when he returned to see what they had done, all had done something, except one, he had done nothing so it was taken and given to the one who had. Again, if we do nothing who then will get that vote?

Please, ALL VOTES are important and Valued! We need to use the Freedom God gave us, we move (do our part) and He goes forth in power!

It has never been clearer to see Good vs. Evil doing battle in the spiritual realm, as it is now playing out and on full display in our physical realm.

Love is Truth. Jesus is the Truth. Jesus is Love, and He came to show and teach the Truth in Love, so we would not be deceived.

When I shout Jesus Is Lord, I would expect to hear an Amen, He is Lord! Yes, I am on God's side.

Here in our beautiful small communities, we Love and Care for one another and show that in so many, many ways! I am so thankful and grateful to live here! As we and other's call our home, "God's Country!"

Please Vote, your one little vote and voice matters! Joy Eck

FROM PANTRY TO TABLE

By Susan Anderson

I have had several requests for my App:e Butter recipe. It won first place at the Montana State fair.

It is made in a crockpot so it's easy.

5 pounds of tart apples peeled, cored and cubed.

3 cups apple cider

Cook these together on the stove. When this comes to a boil, cook for 25 minutes. Puree with an immersion blender.

Add 1 cup brown sugar

3 cups white sugar

Susan Anderson
More recipes at www.susanspantry.com

1 teaspoon ground cloves 4 teaspoons ground cinnamon

Put all in a crockpot on high for 6-7 hours. Jar in 1/2 pint or pint jar. Turn the jars upside down for 5 minutes this helps them seal since you don't have to water bath them.*

*This method of sealing was approved by the State of Montana.

Hope you enjoy.

Until next time, blessings to you and your family.

Why do you want to serve on the County Board?

I am a lifelong resident of Dudley Township in Clearwater County. I would like to be a part of our District 4 representation to be able to take on new challenges as they present themselves. I believe I can offer good leadership and willingness to listen to address any issue.

What do you think will be the most challenging issues in the county?

Property taxes are always the main issue for most people, therefore, using tax dollars efficiently will be the most challenging issue. In addition, making sure hiring and retaining quality county employees is a challenge to be able to provide the services the people of this county need and deserve.

What management and leadership skills have you had?

Being a self-employed small business owner, I had to negotiate contract and deal with employees on a daily basis. I was on the board of directors for Minnesota Trucking Association for 4 years. The association deals with safety issues for the state while maintaining truckers' profitability.

What is the most important job of a commissioner?

The most important job of a commissioner is to be able to convey the ideas and wishes of the people of District 4 and the county. I will try and relay that information to other board members to resolve issues as they arise.

How would you handle public relation issues such as the dump sites?

Every public relation issue is difficult, but the only way to address it is to face it head on and focus on one issue at a time. The hardest part of dealing with these issues is that you cannot always make everybody happy. The dumpster sites are a county provided service that are very needed in this community. By working together as a community to use them properly and keep them clean we could eliminate future problems.

Have you worked with budget planning?

I have served as the Mayor for the city of Leonard which required budget planning. Running your own business, you deal with budgeting on a daily basis. I have developed the ability to plan short- and long-term budget planning to succeed in my business.

Checking of VA Claims

Hello Clearwater County, I hope all is well and you're enjoying the fall as I am. Today I am talking about the VA and how to check on claim status along with other Veteran news. At the Veteran Service Office we help Veterans pursue their VA benefits. This can range from healthcare, disability compensation, pension and burial benefits. Once a Veteran files a claim for disability and or pension the wait can be long. The VA can take anywhere from 6 - 11 months to review all evidence, collect doctors notes and render a decision. During that time, the Veteran has every right to check in on his claim status. As a Veteran you have several options to do this. First, you may always call the VA via phone at 1-800-827-1000, they can give you general claim status. Second for tech savy individuals, one can download the VA app in the app store on their smart phone or smart device. From there you can create an account and at your finger tips you can see where the VA is in the process.

Lastly, you may always call the local Clearwater County Veteran Service Office here in Bagley at 218-694-6618. Please note this last option is open to Veterans who are working with Clearwater County and who reside with in Clearwater County.

Veterans should be proactive in obtaining their benefits by checking claim status. But due note, no decision will be made by the VA without notifying the individual Veterans via mail or phone. If you are working with the Clearwater County Service Office we will also generally call you to let you know of a change or if something is needed from you. I understand that there are some nervous nelly type people out there that like to check claim status almost daily. By downloading the VA app that allows you to do such a thing. Any major questions you may have can always be directed to me here at the county too.

On other news the MN Wild is hosting a Veterans night at 7PM and tickets are discounted. Please visit www.xcelenergycenter.com/groups/offers/military for more details.

Your Vote Helps . . .

Either Democrat

- Support the "right to choose" up to the moment of birth.
- Declare your guns as illegal.
- Have people with "gender dysphoria" teach sexuality to your children.
- Have boys who pretend they are girls compete in girls' sports.
- Have government officials tell you what car you may drive.
- Have a government that continues to expand its influence and the taxes to support it.

Or Republican

- Protect a child's right to live.
- Your constitutional right to own a gun.
- Ban transgender proponents from influencing your children in the classroom.
- Only boys vs. boys and girls vs. girls in school sports
- Have a government that recognizes your right to buy what you prefer.
- Have a government that shrinks so you can enjoy freedom and more of your hard-earned income.

The above is only a short list of "either/or" choices you will make in the coming election.

YOU CAN VOTE RIGHT NOW!

Just go to the courthouse in Bagley and vote.

Every vote -- YOUR VOTE -- Counts!

may be interested in reading the book. Janet highly recommends it! It's available on Kindle for $8.88. Paperback on Amazon is a pricey $37.37. It does not show up in Lake Agassiz Regional Library catalogue. Tsk-Tsk.

The Book
By Janet Knutson, October
2024

The package arrived in the mail. Unexpected.

Seeing who it was from (a dear friend), I hurried to open it. It was a large book, the size of a sheet of paper, and an inch thick. Curious, I looked at the cover. The Seven Wives of Harold Fairhair: A Viking Saga.

Oh! This is exciting! My friend knew of my research into family history and found the perfect gift. I began to read.

One day later, I had read the entire book. All 400 pages. I could not put the book down. I learned so much! Now, I had a much deeper understanding of my heritage and my husband's. What a treasure!

What a marvelous thing is the written word, living from generation to generation, not having to rely on the spoken word and failing memories. Coupled with pictures, drawings and charts, the book gives much insight into the daily lives of an almost forgotten people. Mostly they were Scandinavian, but had an occupation that instilled fear and pride, a strange combination. The fear is a form of government. The pride, a reason to want to keep the traditions. I am forever grateful to my friend for satisfying much of my curiosity.

Hopefully, I can continue to give my family more knowledge of who they are, and where they come from. An inspiration to keep it going!

May our knowledge, be not lost!

If you voted early, that's great!
If you voted for me thank you! If you're still undecided, may I make a final appeal?

From the day I filed to run as your commissioner, I've worked hard to run a positive and transparent campaign. I've heard your concerns. I've shared my history, my heart and my vision for this position in person as well in newspaper ads and on my Facebook page, Bruce Emmel 4 Clearwater County Commissioner. I didn't just tell you I have the experience to be the next examples to demonstrate that expect at those postings on Facebook, you from telling you what my passions defines who I am.

As our law requires, I filed Campaign Finance Reports with our County auditor. In Minnesota this is public information. My reports are also posted on my Facebook page. I thought it was important that I not accept any financial campaign contributions from anyone. My campaign has been entirely self funded.

I've had great conversations with many these last 6 months and if I didn't make it to your door, I apologize. All this to say one last time, I would sure appreciate your vote on November 5th. Thank you! And whoever you choose to vote for, may God bless you!

Sincerely,
Bruce Emmel
